ASSENTED-TO MOTION TO ADMIT
JOHN T. DIXON *PRO HAC VICE

Defendant LBRY, Inc. (“LBRY”) respectfully moves to admit John T. Dixon pro hac vice, pursuant to Local Rule 83.2(b). In support of this motion, LBRY states:

1. LBRY has a long-standing relationship with Attorney Dixon’s firm, Perkins Coie LLP, and it wishes for him to be involved in all stages of these proceedings.
2. The attached supporting affidavit, see Local Rule 83.2(b)(1), attests that Attorney Dixon is a member in good standing of the bar of New York and Georgia, and several federal district courts. Attorney Dixon is not currently suspended or disbarred in any jurisdiction, and there are no previous or pending disciplinary matters against him. Attorney Dixon has no prior felony or misdemeanor criminal convictions. Finally, no court has ever denied an application by Attorney Dixon for admission pro hac vice, nor has any court ever revoked such status.
3. Attorney Dixon will at all times be associated with the undersigned, who is a member of the bar of this Court.

4. The fee for admission is being paid contemporaneously with the filing of this motion. See Local Rule 83.2(b)(2).

5. The undersigned has made a good-faith attempt to obtain concurrence in the relief sought by this motion. See Local Rule 7.1(c). Counsel for plaintiff assents to the relief sought.

6. This motion is supported entirely by the accompanying affidavit of Attorney Dixon and the points made above, and therefore does not require a memorandum. See Local Rule 7.1(a)(2).

WHEREFORE, LBRY respectfully requests that the Court admit John T. Dixon pro hac vice.

May 11, 2021

Respectfully submitted,

LBRY, Inc.

By its attorneys,

/s/ William E. Christie
